

This week there have been a number of small events, and the devotees of the dance have not been without opportunity to indulge in their favorite social diversion. An interesting event to occur next week is the wedding of Mr. George J. Woods and Miss Rachel Brock, of which announcement has already been made in THE COURIER.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilson entertained the senior and post graduate classes of the university law school. They were assisted in entertaining the young men by the ladies of the Kappa Gamma fraternity.

Miss Bertha DuTeil gave a luncheon to the members of the W. T. G. Cooking club Saturday afternoon. Those present were Misses Parrish, Walthers, Merrill, Bartram, Burleigh, Berkson, Dorothy, Greed, Kohn and Leese.

Miss Nellie Lau entertained L'Amusement club Saturday afternoon.

Sorosis met Monday afternoon with Miss Richardson at the Windsor hotel. Mrs. Brace led the discussion which was on 'The Evolution of an American Woman.'

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bergers entertained a few friends Monday evening with whist. Mr. O'Shea was awarded the first gentlemen's prize, and Mr. F. A. Miller, the booby. Mrs. C. W. Hoxie was given the ladies' royal, and Mrs. Albert Dillon the consolation. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sizer, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Shea, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoxie, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones.

Prof. Movius has been made musical director at the Central Church of Christ.

The Philharmonic orchestra is preparing for an elaborate concert to be given in the near future.

Prof. G. C. Williams, Miss Grace Cook, Prof. Snuffin and Mrs. Allen's Mandolin club participated in the entertainment given in the Y. M. C. A. hall last evening.

Monday evening Governor Holcomb, Adjutant General Gage, Major Fechet, U. S. A., and Major Williams, first regiment N. N. G., were present at the Lincoln Light Infantry company's regular drill at the infantry quarters. The visitors spoke briefly and expressed themselves as highly pleased by proficiency shown by the military company. Following the drill the company and guests adjourned to the club rooms in the First National bank building where an interesting program was given.

Mr. J. E. Dorgan, of New Hampton, Iowa; who has been visiting his brothers in this city, W. H. and John T. Dorgan, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. Mont Briggs, of New Hampton, Iowa; who has been visiting in this city has returned home.

Company D., N. N. G., will give "The Spy of Atlanta" at the Lansing February 4.

Willie—Wont you come out and play?

Nellie (daughter of an Advarcad Woman)—No, William I cannot, at least not until I have obtained the requisite information for my paper on the philosophy of the Chaldeans, to be read at the next meeting of the Little Girls Up to Date club. Now run away, and don't interrupt my studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaeffer were surprised Saturday evening by a number of friends who called unexpectedly to celebrate Mr. Shaeffer's thirty-fourth birthday. High five was the leading feature of the evening's entertainment. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Borschel, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Miss Clara Shockey, Mr. John Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Blish entertained the whist club of which they are members, Monday night. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lindley, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Munger, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Meissner, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grainger, Mr. and Mrs. Mauritius.

Prof. W. J. Kinsley left Monday afternoon for New-York.

The Society of the Hall in the Grove met last evening at the residence of Mrs. J. D. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boggs gave a very enjoyable whist party Tuesday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weir, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gilligan, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hallett, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Waugh, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lindley, Mrs. I. W. Lansing, Mr. J. J. Davis, Mr. W. E. Kirker, Miss Kirker. There were no prizes.

Miss Baird, who has been ill, is reported as convalescent.

Mrs. Angie F. Newman left Wednesday for Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Foss Seacrest is visiting her parents at Hiawatha, Kansas.